

Spectralink 7202 and 7212

spectralink

Durable, Robust, and Practical Handsets

The Spectralink 7202 and 7212 wireless DECT handsets are designed for dependability and increased mobility in specialized working environments. The functionalities of these robust and practical handsets make them a dependable working tool for personnel within industries such as retail and hospitality. Moreover, the flexible menu structure allows the handsets to be customized to the needs of specific vertical markets.

With these handsets, employees can move around the office or facility freely while being accessible as they roam to do their job.

For the employee on the move, battery life is of utmost importance, and since these handsets use temperature compensated charging, this allows for quick recharging without damaging the batteries and enables employees to remain productive during work shifts.

Spectralink 7202 Handset

The Spectralink 7202 is a robust, well-designed, practical, and price-competitive handset that enables mobility and is built for dependability in rough working environments.

Spectralink 7212 Handset

The Spectralink 7212 extends the capabilities of the Spectralink 7202. With speakerphone and vibrate mode and the possibility of attaching a wired headset, it allows users to enjoy hands-free mobility.

Finally, the 72 Series handset models are IP54 rated - supporting enhanced protection from dust and water splashes for a more robust operation and handling.

Benefits

- Customize the handset with third-party applications
- Delivers exceptional voice quality without any background noise, echo, delay, or interruptions
- Resistant to drops and shocks making the handsets more durable
- Allows mobile employees to work more efficiently with extended battery life and quick recharging
